DECLARATION OF SCOTT DUNBAR

Dear Sir:

I, Scott Dunbar, declare as follows:

1. I am Patent Counsel of Packard Bell NEC, Inc., which is the successor of interest in the above-referenced U.S. Patent Application, serial no. 08/300,500 (the "Present Application") to Zenith Data Systems Corporation, the Assignee of the Present Application.
2. On or about November 22, 1996, by mistake, I caused the Correspondence Address in the Present Application to be changed to the Patent Department of Zenith Data Systems Corporation in Deerfield, Illinois (the "Deerfield Address").
3. Because of corporate reorganization, the Patent Department of Zenith Data Systems Corporation was relocated more than once since November 22, 1996.

4. On information and belief, numerous communications in the Present Application are believed sent to the Deerfield Address from the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office subsequent to November 22, 1996, including:

- a. Examiner's Interview Summary, mailed on or about March 17, 1997.
- b. An Advisory Action, mailed on or about March 21, 1997.
- c. Examiner's Answer, mailed on or about October 21, 1997.

5. On or about December 9, 1998, at the request of Edward C. Kwok, Attorney for the Applicants in the Present Application, I searched Assignee's files relating to the Present Application but did not find any of the above-listed communications.

I declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Title 18, United States Code, § 1001 and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the Present Application or any patent issued thereon.
